

Landforms

Picture Vocabulary

6.E 6.2 Landforms

Glacier

A huge mass of ice that formed from accumulated and compacted snow that slowly moves down a slope

Coastline

The outline or shape of a coast or the boundary between land and a lake or ocean

Sand Dune

Hills formed by the wind blowing sand

Mountain

A large, natural rise in elevation that has steep sides and is taller than a hill

River

A natural flow of water that follows a path into another body of water

Delta

A triangle-shaped (deposit) landform at the mouth of a river as it empties into another body of water

Lake

A large body of water with land all around it

.